Activities:

Mexico: create your own pinata with some candy and a bag.

France: bake croissants/bread together.

China: build your own "Great Wall" with chairs or couch cushions and learn some tai-chi.

Africa: go on a safari looking for any kind of animals, bugs, living creatures you can find.

San Francisco: go for a bike ride around the "city" and talk about the different landmarks you would see.

Tropical Islands: play in a sand box or with kinetic sand, have a picnic, blow up a beach ball & take a bath with it or make up a hula dance.

Scotland: make a target and practice your archery skills either with dart guns or anything you have handy.

New Orleans: put on a Mardi Gras parade, make a bead necklace with some string & cheerios.

England: set up a tea party for all your dolls/animals or go fly a kite.

Activities Cont...

Germany: bake a (goose) berry pie like Snow White or do some painting like Rapunzel.

New York: put on a show good enough for Broadway.

Norway: have a snow ball fight using tissue paper balls or any soft small stuffed animals.

Australia: hide stuffed animals around the house and take turns going around the "out back" to find them.

Morocco: set up your own "marketplace" and sell/trade items to customers.

Greece: set up an obstacle course and get fit like a Greek God.

Route 66: set up a race track and time which car is the fastest. If you don't have tracks you can use painters tape or chalk outside.

Outerspace: find a box and turn it into a space ship or go searching for stars after dark

Under the Sea: Draw your own fish tank & use cereal or other foods for the fish.
